DEDICATION

In appreciation for their devoted time and patience, the Norwich senior class dedicates the 1971 Eagle to Mrs. Esther Rhoads and Mrs. Madeline Klaver. Both will retire at the close of this school year. It is with this annual that we express our gratitude for their service.

They have a combined total of 61 years of teaching experience--Mrs. Rhoads 31 years and Mrs. Klaver 30 years. At Norwich, Mrs. Rhoads and Mrs. Klaver taught 13 and 20 years respectively.

We want to wish them many happy, restful days and pleasant memories in the future.

Knowing the eagerness and enthusiasm manifested by the annual staff in producing this "Eagle", I wish to join in the hope that it will be received with similar enthusiasm by all those who have the privilege to be associated with the Norwich community.

This annual is a complete panorama of student activities and through it we have the pleasure of greeting our alumni and friends. This book will also provide memories for the students and staff for many years to come. Congratulations seniors.

COMMENCEMENT

The evening of May 24 marked the end of the senior's formal high school education with the 1971 Commencement exercises. A small switch from the traditional found the seniors following honorary ushers, Kenny Farrar and Deanene Messmer, down the aisle to the strains of H. Purcell's "Trumpet Tune." Rev. Ray Blanton delivered the invocation followed by the welcoming salutatory address by Lee Shiny. Patty Allender gave the valedictorian speech.

The principal address of the occasion was given by Dr. John Nickel of Wichita State University who gave the seniors much to think about. Mr. I. C. Trotter presented the class of 1971 to Mr. Con Spainhour, President of the Board of Education, and Mr. Francis H. Taylor, Superintendent of Schools, for the conferring of their diplomas. The benediction was given by Rev. Marien Holbert. Twenty-two smiling seniors marched out to the tune of Trumpet Voluntary and assembled to receive the community's congratulations.

BOYS TRACK

The Eagle track team journeyed to several track meets this season and came home with some impressive winnings. Among the track meets they attended were Sterling, Kiowa, Sharon, Anthony, Southwestern Relays at Winfield, Cheney, the league meet at Sharon, and the Freshman-Sophomore league at Sharon. Brad Holder placed in the low and high hurdles and the 220 yard dash in most of the meets. Kenny Farrar placed in the shot put, discus, and 440 yard dash, also.

The league track meet was held at Sharon with Norwich taking first with 66 points, Sharon second with 59 points, and Attica third with 53 points. Eagles accumulating these points were Holder-first high hurdles, first low hurdles, and second in the 220 yard dash, Farrar-first shot put, first discus, and first 440 yard dash, Robertson-third high jump, Pomeroy-third 2 mile run, Garver-fourth 1 mile run, Allender-fifth 1 mile run, Roberts-second discus, Eshnaur-second shot put, fourth javelin, Vornauf-fourth high hurdles, medley relay-fourth, mile relay-second, and 880 relay-fourth.

The Freshman-Sophomore track meet was also held at Sharon where Norwich again took first place with 61 points, Attica second with 49, and Sharon third with 48 points. Holder-first high hurdles, first low hurdles, first 220 yard dash, Roberts-first discus, third shot put, Eshnaur-first shot put, third javelin, Vornauf-second high hurdles, Garver-fourth mile, Klaver-third 100 yard dash, first 440 yard dash, White-fourth 880 yard run, 880 yard relay-second, medley relay-fourth,

Brad Holder and Kenny Farrar represented Norwich at the regional track meet at Dodge City. Brad took fourth in the high hurdles and the low hurdles.

FOOTBALL

The Norwich Eagle Football team completed their season with a 5-2 record to win second place in the Golden Plains League. With the two games combined that they lost, they were only defeated by 12 points. The Eagles scored a total of 200 points to their opponents 132.

They had their share of injuries during the season. Robin Roberts suffered a knee injury at the beginning of the season. Being unable to play, he was the team's official record keeper. A variety of sprained ankles, sore muscles, and miscellaneous aches were shared by members of the team. Everyone will always remember Kent Fieser's episode during their game at Nashville-Zenda. He received a severe blow to his head which caused a temporary loss of memory.

Kevin Coykendall and Mike Owen had the honor of being named to the Golden Plains All-League Team. Kevin was named to the defensive team and Mike to the offensive team. Brad Holder received honorable mention as a quarterback.

The lack of experience in a young team didn't keep the Eagles from working hard and achieving a good record. Hopes are high for next year's team!

BOYS BASKETBALL

Their hopes were dimmed, however, when Nashville-Zenda defeated them by one point in a game packed with spirited rivalry. Crowds were never silent for long as the tension mounted between the two teams.

The League Tournament was also a disappointment when the Thunderbirds again handed Norwich a loss to become first and the Eagles trailing with second.

Hopes were not down for long, though, because the boys bounded back from these defeats to conquer the Argonia Raiders and receive first in the District Tournament. This game also proved to be an exciting experience. Norwich gained a comfortable lead which faded away in the fourth quarter when the Raiders launched a determined comeback. In the closing moments victory almost alluded Norwich but the Eagles struggled valiantly to win by one point.

The game with Trinity High School at the Regional Tournament proved to be the Eagles last although they put up a courageous battle.

We had three players receive league recognition for their abilities. Kevin Coykendall was voted onto the All-League team while Mike Owen and Brad Holder received honorable mention.

The season was a great success for both the 26 boys out for basketball and the coaches, Bob Skillen and Jim Gosch. During the season we lost three games by a total of only seven points which is indeed a record of which any team would be proud. Everyone's feelings might be summed up by this statement made by Coach Skillen at the Athletic Banquet, "We had a good team which had possibilities of being great."

GIRLS TENNIS

FIRST: Mr. Harris, Coach, D. Messmer, C. Holder, K. Burkett, R. Coykendall, P. Allender, B. Elliott, D. Reneau
SECOND: J. Skalen, N. Holder, S. Kyle, S. Burkett, W. Roberts, R. Dick, L. Simpson, V. Whitehead

Tennis season opened this year with 17 girls eagerly awaiting their first instructions from Coach Harris. With only two courts available there was the problem of adequate space. The girls displayed patience and eventually all had opportunities to play. They conducted their own tournament to determine those who would best represent Norwich at the Hutchinson Invitational Tournament. Norwich was one of the smallest schools participating and as misfortune would have it, they were all defeated. The second meet attended was also held at Hutchinson. In this tournament there were only five schools competing--Norwich, Hutchinson, Fairfield, Wichita Collegiate, and McPherson. The team expressed feelings of triumph upon their arrival home. Patty Allender, Rita Coykendall, Barbara Elliott, and Wendy Roberts each won one of their sets playing doubles.

The highlight for 6 members of the team was their overnight journey to Pittsburgh to participate in the State Tennis Tournament. Patty Allender and Rita Coykendall competed in Singles play and Barbara Elliott, Wendy Roberts, Deanene Messmer, and Sheila Burkett in Doubles.

An incident long to be remembered was when a roaring card game was mysteriously interrupted by a ghostly figure who turned out to be Mr. Harris.

Although unsuccessful in their tennis competition, the team had a great time competing.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Under the guidance of Mr. Trotter, 16 energetic girls set out to make this season a winning one. Each girl displayed enthusiasm for basketball in practices as well as the games. The A-team ended the season with a 3 win and 5 loss record. The B-team brought home a 1 loss record. The high point girl for the A-team was Debra Martin and Sheila Burkett for the B-team.

The girls opened the season with a home game against Skyline. The home crowd helped to boost the girls' spirit, but Skyline handed them their first defeat with a score of 39 to 13.

The girls were determined though, and took on Fairfield. This game ended with a 38 to 10 defeat. Their next game was with Sharon which ended in a victorious 41 to 17 score.

They then journeyed to the Skyline Tournament to play Skyline. Once again they suffered defeat by a score of 34 to 13. However, they later gained the Cunningham game to their win record with a 37 to 34 score. Their final opponent of the season was Fairfield, where the B-team played their only game. Both teams were defeated with an A-team score of 52 to 25 and a B-team score of 25 to 9.

One of the highlights of the season was the win at the Andale Tournament over Belle Plaine 31 to 24 the first night. They came back to battle Andale for first, but were forced to accept defeat with a score of 53 to 26. Bringing home the second-place trophy helped to soothe their disappointment.

Another highlight of the season was when the alumni challenged the girls to a game during Christmas vacation. Though no official records were kept, the game ended with the alumni slightly on top.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year, the Student Council benefitted the school in several ways. They sponsored freshmen initiation, the Homecoming parade, the Homecoming dance, the Christmas dance, along with a few other dances during the football and basketball seasons.

The Stuco also contributed $100 to the football scoreboard fund.

The officers for Student Council were: Kent Davis, President; Kevin Coykendall, Vice-president; and Armella Ayres, Secretary-Treasurer.

SPEECH AND DRAMA

Sondra Kyle represented our school in speech and drama festivals, presenting an oral interpretation of prose entitled "The Silver Butterfly", by Pearl S. Buck. This selection presents the grim story of life in a communist commune. Sondra received a I-rating at league festival at Partridge, a I rating at district at Wichita State University, and a II at the state festival at Southwestern College, Winfield.

PTA

The Parent-Teacher Association of Norwich, Kansas resolved this past year to schedule meetings every other month, instead of the traditional meeting every month. This did not mean a decline of interesting activities, however.

During the year, the PTA sold fund night tickets, in order to help pay for the football scoreboard. The speakers for the meetings included two ex-drug users, inmates of the Kansas State Industrial Reformatory, who spoke of the harmful effects of drugs, and Otto Kautman, of the Kansas State Reading Circle. Other activities included a style show, and open house and a teacher reception. For the December and May meetings the bands and vocal groups performed, directed by Mr. Bruce Bunker.

The officers for the year were: Glenda Burkett, President. Linda Coykendall, First Vice-President; Lana Barnes, Second Vice-President, Mystel Shiney, Third Vice-President, Bernie Gosch, Secretary; and Virginia Wineinger, Treasurer.

PEP CLUB

"STRAIGHT TO THE TOP" was the motto that described the spirit of all the 40 girls in Pep Club this year. The girls who carried most of the responsibility for the success of this organization were: Debbie VanGieson, president, Vickie Whitehead, vice-president, Patty Allender, secretary, Cathy Holder, treasurer, Dianna Easter, social chairman, and Rita Coykendall, reporter.

This year Miss Eggert had a new co-sponsor to assist her. Mrs. Kennedy added new spark to the club which was a welcome ingredient. With her help, the girls made clever and colorful posters to help generate added spirit. These could be seen in the halls, in the gym, and in the hands of enthusiastic Pep Club members.

The cheerleaders, wishing to gain new experience and material, attended cheerleading camp at Rock Springs Ranch from August 1-5. Their trip proved successful as they returned with several ribbons and many memories. The "A" team squad, Leann Poe, Wendy Roberts, Kay Davis, and Donita Dolley, received two blue and two red ribbons. The "B" team squad, Sheila Burkett, Deanene Messmer, Debbie Poe, and Nancy Holder, brought home two reds and one white.

The Pep Band, directed by Mr. Banker, provided entertainment for the basketball games during half times and between games. This year its members occupied seats in the bleachers, behind the Pep Club, to be closer to the crowd. Their jazzy melodies were enjoyed and added to the spirit of the games.

The League Tournament was again hosted by Norwich. The Pep Club maintained the concession stand for the tournament as well as for all the home football and basketball games.

The Athletic Banquet was another highlight of the Pep Club activities. Again this year, the girls organized and financed the banquet for the athletes.

Several pep rallies consisting of skits, cheers, songs, and speeches were conducted throughout the season. During the football season the cheerleaders created a spirit stick from a telephone pole and painted it with red and white stripes. It was erected at the football field. They hope this spirit stick will continue to be a source of pride for many years to come.

To many of the Pep Club members, it may have seemed that much of the time was spent on the bus trips to and from the away games. This conclusion was not entirely unjustified, for the girls spent nearly 1,000 miles on the road.

The Pep Club considered it to be a successful season and they hope there will be many more in the future.

Y-TEENS

Thirty-three girls joined Y-Teens this year determined to make it the best year ever. The officers were: Dianna Easter, president, Cathy Holder, vice-president, and Peggy Fieser, secretary-treasurer. Miss Steele and Mrs. DeAnn Stephens, YWCA vice-president, were the sponsors. Having Mrs. Stephens in attendance enabled the Y-Teens and the YWCA to work jointly in activities and accomplishments during the year.

The girls conducted a combination bake sale and toy shop. For the toy shop project everyone brought old toys and repaired them. This resulted in the donation of two large boxes of toys to the Red Cross. Other events included a weiner roast at Silver Maple Camp, Christmas Chapel, World Day of Prayer, and a YWCA-Y-Teen Christmas program. Members at this joint meeting were entertained by a skit about Jolly 'Ole St. Nick and vocal selections by Edith Farrar.

Sheila Burkett was elected as ICC this year and represented them at the Fall Conference in Kingman. Deanene Messmer, her campaign manager, used as her campaign slogan, "Sheila Wow!"

Rita Dick was the point-keeper. Her duties were to keep a record of all the Y-Teen activities attended by each member. Points were given for each activity attended and at the end of the year attendance pins were awarded. The chairmen of the standing committees were: Debbie VanGieson, program, Rita Coykendall, worship, Deanene Messmer, social; Nancy Liddake, world fellowship and service, Leann Poe, finance, Barbara Elliott, song leader, and Wendy Roberts, publicity.

ANNUAL STAFF

The annual staff, on behalf of the entire Senior class, is proud to present this year's annual to you. This collection of photographs and written information are designed to bring back fond memories of 1971 in years to come. We, the annual staff, are very appreciative of the outside help that we have received, and hope that this year's annual will, in your judgment, be the most creative and fact-filled piece of literature ever to be turned out by an annual staff.

Those on the annual staff were Patty Allender--editor, Lee Shiney--assistant editor and photographer; Wendy Roberts--annual sales manager, Leann Poe--ad manager, Edith Farrar--photographer, Cathy Holder--junior editor, and Deanene Messmer--junior assistant editor. The annual staff worked under close surveillance of Mrs. Kennedy and Mr. Skillen, who spent many hours of their time supervising the annual construction.

The annual staff is indebted to the many patrons, boosters, and advertisers, without whose help this yearbook would not have gotten off the drawing board. To everyone deserving the credit, thank you for your support!

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music department, with Mr. Bunker at the helm, was kept busy this year. Football season found the marching band tramping the streets in preparation for the State Fair and playing peppy tunes at the football games. When marching season ended, the band turned its efforts to concert music. The high school musicians made up a great pep band to add spirit to the basketball games. The concert band made a hectic trip to Cunningham, March 16, to join the other bands of the league in the league band clinic. State contest at Southwestern sent the band home with a II rating for their performance and a II for sightreading.

The vocal music groups have had their share of activities and performances. The mixed chorus joined other Golden Plains League vocalists March 9 at the league vocal music clinic in Hardtner. The year was highlighted for the boy's glee club by the I rating they received for their performance at State contest. The girls were proud of the II they brought home.

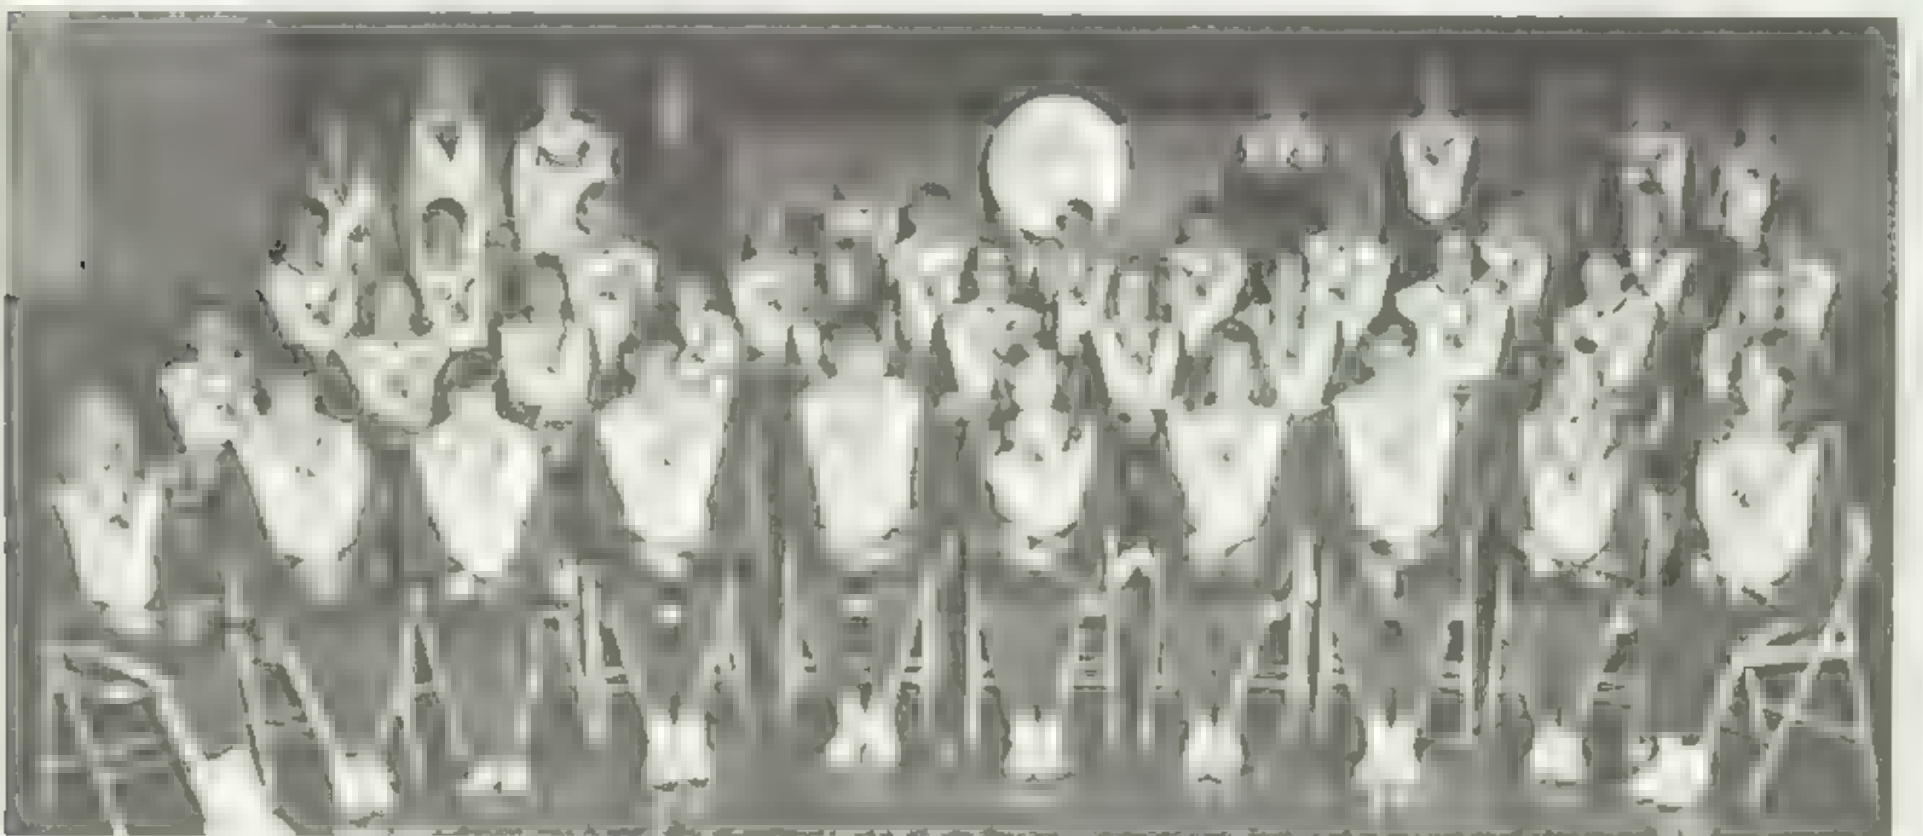

The band and mixed chorus combined their talents for the enjoyment of the community in a Christmas concert December 17.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

On the evening of December 22, the Norwich Student Council arranged for Santa Claus to visit the students. He brought presents for everyone. There were various forms of gift exchange. As music played, gifts were passed from student to student, and when the music stopped, each kept the gift he had at that time. In another event, the boys drew a girl's name and then selected a gift for her, and she for him.

The St. Vitus Dance Band, composed of Robin Roberts, Evan Burkett, and Kent Fieser, provided the music for the evening. Everyone enjoyed Santa's visit and the music.

JUNIOR PLAY

Once in the morning SHOULD do it! Donald & Deanene

Oh my head. I don't feel so well. Tom B.

"REST ASSURED"

The Junior play was presented on November 13, 1970. Even though it was Friday the 13th, the marvelous performance was not spooked by superstition. The three-act comedy was directed by Mr. Bruce Bunker, known by his friends as Bunk, however, the play was far from being a bunch of bunk.

Phillip U. Morlock is a money-crazed executive who loves himself and his money, nothing else. He spends no time with his family, and comes close to not knowing that his wife Hazel, and daughters Mary and Jessica, even exist. When it comes time for Mary to get married to Joe Lanconi, son of a poor Italian butcher, P. U. ignores the matter.

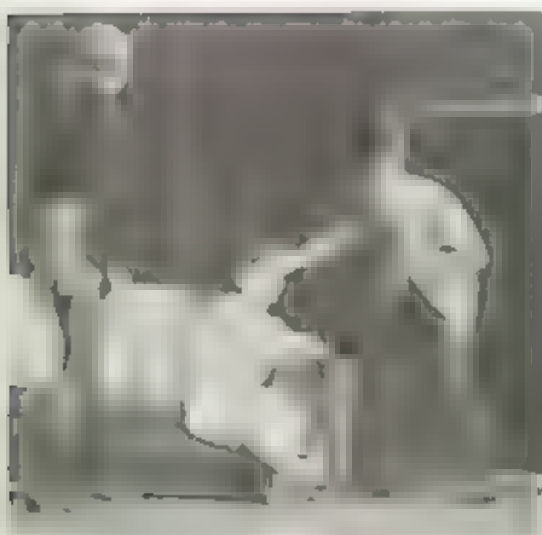

Things take a turn for the better when P. U. settles down for a nap. He dreams that he had died and has come back to visit his family, although they can't see him. He is shocked to hear people rejoicing that he is dead, but he also realizes for the first time in a long time that he loves his family. Because his family cannot hear his pleas of forgiveness, they have no idea that he is a changed man. When Lucifer comes to take P. U. away to the fiery furnace, P. U. suddenly wakes up and realizes that he is in the world of reality again, so he jumps at the chance to right his wrongs. Of course, the family and friends of P. U. do not know what has happened to him, but they don't mind the radical change. In the end, Mary is given the O. K. to get married, and Phillip gets to know his family.

To everyone involved, "A FINE JOB!"

SENIOR PLAY

Kevin and Mr. Bunker

On April 22 at 8:00 in the grade school auditorium, under the direction of Mr. Bunker, the Senior Class presented "Love Rides the Rails" or "Will the Mail Train Run Tonight?" This hilarious melodrama was different from the plays of the past in more ways than one. Actual scenery and drops were used instead of curtains, and plants were used throughout the play. A bag of popcorn was included in the admission fee to throw at the villains. Edith Farrar provided the background music during the play and entertained at the intermissions with her singing.

The plot revolved around the hero, Truman Pendennis, and the villain, Simon Darkway, fighting over the railroad and the beautiful young maiden, Prudence Hopewell. Simon Darkway, owner of the Middletown and Rocky Mountain R. R., was out to get the Walker Valley, Pine Bush & Pacific R. R. by foul means. Carlotta joined his felonious scheme by seducing Truman, superintendent of the W. V. P. B. & P. R. R., with alcohol. While Truman lay in a drunken stupor at the Paradise Café, Simon and Dirk put their evil intentions into action. They turned the workers against Truman and tried to stop the R. R. from running. As always the hero came through in the end. Truman saved the franchise and his marriage to Prudence.

HOMEcoming 1970

A crisp October day set the scene for the 1970 Homecoming festivities. Activities got off to a colorful start with a spirited parade down main street. The many gaily decorated vehicles made a festive backdrop for the afternoon's main attractions--mock coronation featuring our brawny football boys and a chase for the 'pig ski' starring the pep club.

Norwich High alumnae returned in force to cheer the Eagles as they took on the Partridge Quails in a rousing football contest. Half-time activities were highlighted by the coronation of the 1970 Homecoming Queen, Rita Coykendall and king, George Hibbs. Attendants Leann Poe and Wendy Roberts were escorted by John Bogle and Kent Davis. The queen and her court reigned over the second half of the game which ended in another victory for the Eagles.

Following the game students and alumnae enjoyed more Homecoming festivities at the Homecoming dance. The annual celebration was sponsored this year by the student council and the appropriate theme of 'Touchdown' set the mood for a gala affair throughout the day.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

On Friday, April 16, many excited juniors and seniors made their way to the school gymnasium for the Junior-Senior Prom. It was rather rainy outside, but the weather did not dampen anyone's spirits.

Upon stepping through the sparkling archway one was greeted by the splendor of an "Underwater Fantasy." A world of turquoise and avocado green was lighted by suspended, glowing fish of all colors. The juniors had spent many hours stuffing an octopus, sea turtle, snail, clam, and snake, which helped enhance the atmosphere. Driftwood, a treasure chest, and fish net were also used to add to the underwater decor.

To begin the evening activities, Mr. Johnson presented the invocation. Deanene Messmer followed with the toast to the banquet dinner, planned and prepared by the junior mothers, was served by members of the sophomore class. A short skit was given by the junior sponsors, Mrs. Lowrey and Mr. Bunker, and Lee Shiney during the meal.

Following the dinner, Deanene Messmer, the junior president, welcomed the seniors and parents to the "Underwater Fantasy." This was met with the response by the senior class president, Kevin Coykendall. For entertainment, Jill Skillen presented a piano solo and Edith Farrar, accompanied by Mr. Bunker, sang several folk songs. Donald Hibbs concluded the program with a brief farewell speech after which the seniors were given a standing ovation by the juniors.

The "Public Secret" provided the music for dancing.

Athletic Attendants

George Hibbs, Dianna Easter, John Bogle, Rita Coykendall, Leann Poe, Kent Davis.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

Norwich Eagle fans spent "A Night in the Jungle" on March 19 at the Athletic Banquet. Various jungle animals roamed through the gym during the evening. A jungle hut and trees added to the setting of a jungle.

Chicken casserole was prepared by the Christian Church ladies for the hungry jungle explorers.

Larry Easter, Julie Hacker, Terry Wineinger, and Ricky Dolley performed a jungle dance for the curious onlookers. Robin Roberts and Mark Eshnaur also entertained with several vocal selections. The "Public Secret" provided the music for the prom.

The highlights of the evening was the crowning of the Athletic King and Queen. The royalty and their attendants were Kevin Coykendall and Wendy Roberts, George Hibbs, Dianna Easter, Rita Coykendall, and John Bogle. The taperlighters were Kent Davis and Leann Poe. Ricky Cessna and Michelle Veasey were the crown bearer and flower girl.

BACCALAUREATE

On Sunday May 23, 1971, the seniors of Norwich High School began their last week of high school activities. Baccalaureate services were held in the gym at 8:00 P.M. The seniors entered wearing their purple caps and gowns preceded by Debbie Poe and Evan Burkett, taperlighters; and Deanene Messmer and Kenny Farrar, honorary ushers. Jill Skillen played the piano for the processional and the recessional marches. The invocation was given by Rev. Marion Holbert from the Methodist Church. The speaker of the evening was Rev. Ollie Demous of the Christian Church. Rev. Blanton of the Baptist Church gave the benediction thus ending the Baccalaureate services of 1971.

CLASS NIGHT

A take-off on a soap opera set the stage for the seniors final fling at Norwich High School. Complete with appropriate organ music, flimsy plot, lousy acting, and worse commercials, "General Hospital" had the audience rolling in the aisles. Incorporated in the senior's skit were the class prophecy by Edith, the class poem by Leann, the class history by Sondra, and the class will by Kevin.

Awards for the year's work were presented following the skit. Athletic letters were presented by the various coaches to their teams for efforts in football, basketball, track, and tennis, typing and shorthand pins were given, the pep club girls and cheerleaders received recognition, and music letters were passed out. Special awards were given to Rosemary Smith for her work in Home Ec., Kenny Farrar for highest scholastic achievement, and Edith Farrar as outstanding senior of the year. Patty Allender received the Lions Club Scholarship and Wendy Roberts was the first recipient of the Rex and Nora Huffington Scholarship. A very special basketball letter was presented to Ardella Gray, 1913 graduate of Norwich High School.

EIGHTH GRADE PROMOTION

Class Motto . . . Achievement Today-Success Tomorrow
 Class Flower . . . Red Rose
 Class Colors . . . Blue and Gold

The eighth grade class of 1971 held their promotion exercises Tuesday, May 25. Gayle Coon and David Hefley had the honor of ushering the graduates. With its 35 members, they are believed to be the largest eighth grade class ever to graduate from Norwich. Rev. Marlen Holbert gave the invocation. Individual speeches were given next by top-ranking students. Rev. Ray Blanton delivered the address to the graduates. Climb Every Mountain was sung by the class. Mr. Trotter presented the class to Mr. Dwight Stephens who conferred their diplomas. The benediction was given by Rev. Holbert.

We all want to congratulate the graduates.
